

Is Your Revenue Cycle Ready for the Future?

OPTIMIZE

Risk-Based Reimbursement is approaching, and it will significantly alter the traditional reimbursement model.

Divurgent's RCM Optimize helps organizations prepare for the forthcoming change by identifying the root cause issues in the RCM life cycle, improving upon them, and providing real-time metrics and reporting.

Maximizing Your RCM Profits.

Identify RCM Road Blocks. Determining the root cause issues of the people, process, and technologies of the RCM life cycle, Divurgent is able to minimize disruptions, improve workflows, and enhance the collection process. Alleviating these inefficiencies is essential to maximizing profitability, while delivering the best care to your patients.

Improve RCM Process. Through a partnership approach, we focus on improving the gaps of each component of the RCM life cycle. We provide our clients with unique organizational benchmarks, pushing reimbursement excellence in profitability and operating margins.

Measure RCM Life Cycle. Bringing the knowledge of RCM best practices to our clients, Divurgent is able to create real time metrics and reporting for organizations. Through customized dashboards, organizations are able to optimize their RCM life cycle at anytime.
